

Club President

The responsibility of the Club President is to overview the management and administrative operation of the club and to provide leadership and support to all its members. The President may do this through sound leadership and effective communication.

A Club President should have a solid background in human relationships and management, together with significant experience in Rugby league activities.

The image of the Club is often represented through the Club President and whenever representing the Club, a President should aim for the highest levels of efficiency, together with sound ethical and moral standards.

Suggested Duties

1. Be fair and reasonable and show consideration and understanding towards the feelings, hopes and expectations of others involved in the Club.
2. Be unbiased and impartial, give clear direction and set an example for others to follow.
3. Be an effective and efficient Chairperson, encourage focused discussion and have a sound knowledge of debating and meeting procedures.
4. Represent the Club at a local, district and regional level in a positive and professional manner.
5. Keep informed of all Club activities and be aware of about future planning initiatives.
6. Ensure the list of responsibilities delegated to the Club Committee and various office bearers are widely communicated and understood.
7. Have a good and clear understanding of the Club rules, the constitution and the responsibilities of the various office bearers.
8. Ensure the Club rules, constitution and by-laws are respected and observed by everyone involved.
9. Encourage players and officials to abide by the State or District Junior League Rules, Regulations and Codes of Conduct.
10. Ensure the clubs financial management procedures and budgeting remains on target and is achieved.
11. Maintain an overview of the Club's strategic planning initiatives.
12. Ensure at all times the management of the Club remains positive and progressive and the objects and aims of the Club are respected and observed.
13. Be prepared to make difficult decisions on behalf of the Club if necessary and insist on all members respecting and abiding by the Club's discipline provisions.